Chivalric Idiots.

Richmond, 21.—All manner of rumors were afloat to-day regarding a hostile meeting between Beltrac and Elam, and interest in the affair has been intense. The latest is that a challenge has been accepted by Elam. He is reported as having left here to-night with friends, a surgeon, weapons, etc., for the battle field, which will be outside the state.The Whig, Elam's paper, had an editorial to-day in reply to one in the State yesterday, commending in strong language on the Whig as the organ of "Boss Mahone" and concluding as follows: "In making this comment upon 'Boss Mahone' we wish it to be distinctly understood by all his corrupt henchmen, that what we say and have said of him we mean, and have meant of them personally, individually, collectively, or in any sense they may feel it. A more vicious, corrupt gang never followed an adventurer than hang around the petty boss."The Whig takes extracts from State's article replying to each charge and concludes: "Now we might be content with simply giving a lie to all this, as we do generally for the re-adjuster party, especially insofar as its charges are meant to apply to the Whig or anybody connected with the Whig in a responsible way; but we wish further to say that the whole article from which we make these extracts is a tissue of general denunciation, which would humiliate if not accompanied by lofty pretensions of superiority in manners, morals and letters, that are laughable and ridiculous, coming from a source so pitiable in all moral and intellectual resources. Consequently, unintimidated and not utterly crushed, we laugh at the State's vituperation and vaporing, and beg to remark that not only does the State lie, but its editor and owner lies."Copenhagen, 21.—The duel between Eichel and Balazze was fought by moonlight. The weapons were swords. The wounds of Eichel will likely prove fatal.
Balazze is a fugitive.

Butler at Philip's Academy.

Exeter, N. H., 21.—To-day was the principal one of the centennial of the Phillips Academy. Governor Butler and staff were present; also President Elliot of Harvard; Prof.
Tucker, of Andover; Prof. R. D.
Hitchcock, of the Union Theological Seminary, New York, and other noted educators. Rev. Horatio Stebbins, of San Francisco was orator.
A poem read by Rev. Edward Everett Hale; dinner followed. Gov.
Bancroft replied to the toast the "Academy of the Past," was responded to by Gov. Butler, who after recalling his days of scholarship at the institution said the light of science was just dawning. The best way to govern people was yet to be discovered, the best way to feed them unknown. Hereafter science and the mechanical work will govern the world in peace or war. The mechanical engineer has his throttle on the universe and will make it proceed hereafter. He attended the concert and ball in the evening.

A Pleasant Political Party.

Columbus, O., 21.—The convention continued in session without a recess at either noon or evening, and scenes of confusion at times were disgraceful. During the afternoon session Charles W. Metcalf and Peter Kelly got into a fight and the row had to be quelled by the police.
The men were arrested and locked up. Kelly is a brother of Alderman Kelly, who shot a man at the election at Cincinnati on Tuesday afternoon. The work of making tickets continued amid the greatest confusion, with the following results: Supreme judge, short term, Martin D. Follett; supreme judge, long term, Selwin Owen; supreme court clerk, John J. Quickshank; attorney general, James Lawrence; auditor of state, Emil Keisewetter; treasurer of state, Peter Brady. At 11.30 p.m. the convention was still in session, with the school commissioner and members of the public works committee still to nominate.Leroy D. Brown, Butler Co., was nominated for school commissioner, and Jos. P. Martin, of Green Co., as a member of the board of public works.

A Petty Broil.

Guayaquil, via Galveston, 21.— The meeting to arrange a settlement between the parties has ended. It is reported Veintemila is willing to surrender the city if allowed to retain his generalship and his officers in their present position. The opposing party will not consent. It is expected an attack will be made shortly.

Sure Cure for Tramps.

Cincinnati, 21.—Thomas Scanlan, was to-day convicted by a jury in the Common Pleas Court on an indictment under the tramp law. The penalty is from one to three years in the penitentiary. This is said to be the first conviction under this statute in Ohio.
